

Grand Hotel Europa with new management

Since the beginning of the year 2008 the Innsbruck Grand Hotel Europa lies in the experienced hands of Vienna native Arthur Arrigo Alexander Guelfenburg.

Guelfenburg appeared pleased with his new task, which now leads him to the west of the country after positions in Austria's east and south. "Together with the great staff members we will further expand the position of Grand Hotel Europa as the top establishment on the square", promises the new director.

After his training at the prestigious Vienna tourism school MODUL, Guelfenburg worked at top hotel industry establishments in Austria, Switzerland, Germany and France.

Afterwards, Guelfenburg was employed for many years with InterContinental Hotels & Resorts, first as sales manager and then as sales director. The luxurious Schloss Gabelhofen locality at Fohnsdorf in Styria also flourished under his leadership, as well as the Stegersbach Golf & Thermal Spring Resort, where he was responsible for activities as sales and marketing director.

Guelfenburg lastly worked as area manager with Sodexo Catering & Services. His sphere of responsibility with Sodexo included 15 Outlets – for instance in the Federal chancellery, at ORF Austrian broadcasting, at Alcatel or at Boehringer Ingelheim – as well as the personnel management of 180 employees.
